is hereby assigned and transferred to The American Society for Nondestructive Testing, Inc. (hereinafter ASNT) effective if and when the work is accepted for publication.

Furthermore, this assignment and transfer applies to all other publications or reproductions by ASNT or its licensees, in which the above work may be reproduced subsequent to its appearance in:

Research in Nondestructive Evaluation (RNDE)

ASNT reserves the right to edit this work. However, the author and/or copyright holder reserves the following rights:

1. All proprietary rights (such as patent rights) other than copyright.
2. The right to make oral presentation of the same material in any form.
3. The right to grant or refuse permission to third parties to republish all or part of the work or translations thereof. Such third parties must obtain ASNT's written permission as well.
4. The right to use all or part of this work in future works of author in author's capacity as either author or editor, without charge, provided ASNT is properly credited as the source.

The author and/or copyright holder affirms that the work does not contain material the publication of which would violate any copyright, trademark, intellectual property rights or other personal or proprietary rights of any private person or entity or governmental or quasi-governmental entity. Caveat: the author is specifically reminded and cautioned that NDT processes, procedures, techniques, etc. may be the subject of U.S. government classification regulations; the unauthorized publication thereof may expose the author to prosecution under applicable federal law. Therefore, the author must carefully verify sources of data other than those originated by the author. In addition, the author warrants that the work has not been published previously elsewhere.

Government-funded authors only

- This is a work of the federal government and is not subject to copyright.
- This is a work for hire. The federal government retains the nonexclusive right to reproduce this work.

Signatures of all authors or copyright holders required
